Descripción general	Nota: si está interesado en esta convocatoria, por favor escribir un mensaje a: oiaresearch@uniandes.edu.co y a oianetworks@uniandes.edu.co The OSUN Center for Human Rights & the Arts invites applications for faculty research grants at the intersection of human rights and the arts. The Center seeks to confront the current practical and conceptual challenges of human rights discourse by stimulating new ways of thinking, developing new strategies of activism and engagement, incubating new relationships between activists, scholars and artists, and working seriously and meaningfully at a global scale. The goal of the grants is to support OSUN faculty research—including scholarly research, investigation/documentation, or research-based art practices—and to strengthen the connections between OSUN member faculty. Eligibility: Any faculty member with an appointment to teach during the 2021-2022 academic year in any of the partner institutions of OSUN is eligible to apply. Grants Details: Faculty members can apply to one or both of two categories, but will only be awarded funding for one: Research Stipend Grant or Course Release Grant. Research Stipend Grant: Successful applicants for the Research Stipend award will receive up to $8,000 in research support. These funds can be used to cover relevant book and equipment purchases, conference participation, research travel, research assistants, translators, transcriptions, scanning and copying, permissions, artistic collaborators, subscriptions, entry fees and other admissions, and costs associated with other relevant materials, services, and arrangements necessary for conducting the proposed research. All expenses must be pre-approved through the application process (or subsequently amended) and executed between January 30 and August 30, 2022. Please note that since the award payment is issued as a stipend rather than as advanced payment for research expenses, it may be considered taxable income and will be the award recipient's responsibility to declare appropriately.

	Course Release Grant: The Course Release Grant is intended to support a faculty member’s research by awarding their institutional funds to cover the faculty’s time spent researching. In order to be eligible for this award, the applicant must submit a letter of support from the relevant dean, department chair, or other academic officer(s) at the applicant’s institution. The time frame for the course release must be approved by the faculty’s institution as well.
