Descripción general	Nota: si está interesado en esta convocatoria, por favor escribir un mensaje a: oiaresearch@uniandes.edu.co y a oianetworks@uniandes.edu.co The OSUN project in Transnational Feminism, Solidarity, and Social Justice invites applications for five research grants of up to €5,000 each for 2022. All faculty affiliated with OSUN colleges and universities are eligible to apply. The research project must involve faculty members from at least two different OSUN colleges or universities and must be completed within two years from the official start date of the project, at the latest. Priority will be given to research projects that meaningfully involve and allocate at least 60% of the research budget to OSUN colleges and universities located outside Western Europe and North America. The project is jointly developed by faculty from Al-Quds Bard College, American University of Central Asia, Bard College, Bard College Berlin, Central European University, and SOAS, University of London as well as scholars selected in collaboration with Off-University. It seeks to develop the promising connections available via OSUN to foster feminist collaborations in academia and beyond; it is a platform for students and faculty from OSUN partner institutions to engage in rigorous academic work, express themselves freely, inspire each other through artistic practice, and work closely with local and international initiatives to further the feminist agenda for social justice. What can be funded? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Original fieldwork</li> <li>• Library and archive visits</li> <li>• Research-based community outreach and art activities</li> <li>• Research dissemination (print and online publications including translations, podcasts, zines, etc.)</li> <li>• Workshops and conferences</li> </ul> All research proposals will be evaluated by a selection committee consisting of faculty from several OSUN colleges and universities. Applicants will be notified of the committee's decisions by the end of January 2022.

	Grant recipients will at a later stage be invited to present their projects and research findings as part of the Transnational Feminism, Solidarity, and Social Justice network courses. Upon the completion of their research projects, grant recipients will be required to submit financial and narrative reports.
