

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR VISITING PROFESSOR 2020-20

(One placement)

Eligibility

- 1 To hold a PhD or a Master's Degree
- 2 Full-time availability
- 3 Residence in Bogotá is mandatory throughout the visiting time

Application materials

- 1 Syllabus proposal of course or courses to lecture
- 2 Research proposal within a four-month plan: this should include activities and achievements expected in each period and must be explicitly linked to one of the School of Law's research projects, particularly, to one of the research clusters. The applicant should discuss the research proposal with the cluster coordinator.
- 3 Curriculum vitae
- 4 Motivation letter
- 5 Starting date: July of 2020

Application procedure

- 1 Application materials
letter of presentation of the candidate addressed to the dean, up-to-date resume, copy of undergraduate and postgraduate degrees, accreditation of experience in teaching and researching in the areas of their specialty through certification issued by a University or research center, proposed program of one of the courses of the basic cycle of the undergraduate law of Universidad de los Andes, proposed work in researching for four months, clearly separating the achievements and activities of each of them. These documents should be sent to through the following link <https://es.surveymonkey.com/r/profvisitante>, at the latest by February 14th of 2020. Incomplete or out-of-deadline materials will not be considered.
- 2 Pre-selection and interviews:
the Selection Committee (conformed by the directors of the areas related to the candidate's expertise, the Undergraduate Program Director and the Legal Education Director) will select the pre-candidates based on their merits and achievements and eventually conduct interviews with the Selection Committee will present their preliminary evaluation and conclusions based on the application materials and the interviews conducted to the Faculty's Council, which will make the final decision on the elected candidate.

3 Evaluation:

4 Activities:

it is expected that the teacher can begin their work in the first semester of 2020 (January).

Description

- 1 Full-time employment contract/contract of service for four months, renewable for four additional months in the next semester. The renewal's decision will be made by the Faculty's Council.
- 2 Will be allowed to receive bonus for participating in research projects with independent financing.
- 3 Will be supervised by a Professor assigned by the Selection Committee.

The applicant is expected to

- 1 Support her/his/their research cluster or project on building external financing projects.
- 2 Lecture, at least, 90 students divided in two courses during the semester. This will not be necessary if the professor is participating in a special project or investigation, is lecturing graduate-level courses or continued education (she/he/they must get the respectively approbation on grounds of the Professorial Statute).
- 3 Work on pedagogical material or write an article and submit it to evaluation for further publication (it must indicate that is a product of the academic visit to Universidad de los Andes Law School). Visiting professor will have a one year term to submit the article or the pedagogical material to the Law School.
- 4 Actively participate in the Cijus Workshops and Doctoral Colloquiums.

Doubts and inquires:

To the following email: convocatoriasderecho@uniandes.edu.co.

About the Law School

The Law School of Universidad de los Andes was founded in 1968 and is currently recognized as one of the most prestigious in Latin-America.

It has 43 full-time professors, of which 35 have PhD Degrees from the best universities in United States, Europe and Latin America. These professors represent a wide variety of theoretical and methodological positions ranging from law and society studies, history of law, critical legal studies, as well as specialized knowledge in diverse areas.