Descripción general	The UN Democracy Fund invites civil society organizations to apply for project funding. UNDEF supports projects that empower civil society, promote human rights, and encourage the participation of all groups in democratic processes. Most UNDEF funding goes to local civil society organizations. In this way, UNDEF plays a distinct role in complementing the UN's other work -- the work with Governments -- to strengthen democratic governance around the world. This is the Sixteenth Round to be launched by UNDEF, which provides grants of up to US$300,000 per two-year project. Since 2006, UNDEF has supported more than 800 two-year projects in over 100 countries at a total amount of over US$200 million. Proposals are subject to a highly rigorous selection process, with fewer than two per cent of proposals chosen for funding. For this Round, UNDEF invites project proposals covering one or more of any of its eight thematic areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Women's empowerment</li> <li>• Community activism</li> <li>• Rule of law and human rights</li> <li>• Youth engagement</li> <li>• Strengthening civil society interaction with Government</li> <li>• Media and freedom of information</li> <li>• Tools for knowledge</li> <li>• Electoral processes</li> </ul> From the FAQ: Can an organization submit multiple proposals undef an UNDEF round of funding? In principle, there is no limit to the number of proposals. However, applicants are advised to be strategic as it is highly unlikely that UNDEF will fund more than one proposal per organization. Are research activities funded by UNDEF?

	UNDEF aims at funding action oriented projects. Proposals focusing only on research related activities are not one of our core priorities.
