Descripción general	The World Justice Challenge is a global competition conducted by the World Justice Project (WJP) to identify, recognize, and promote good practices and high-impact projects and policies that protect and advance the rule of law. This year's Challenge, "Building More Just Communities," is dedicated to addressing structural inequities and governance weaknesses exacerbated by the COVID-19 crisis. WJP invites entries that strengthen the foundational elements of the rule of law, support a just recovery from COVID-19, and tackle the root causes of societies' persistent inability to deliver a dignified life for all. About the Challenge: Cash awards ($20,000 USD) will go to five initiatives that show demonstrable results and promising prospects for future progress and replication/scaling. The Challenge is being conducted in tandem with the World Justice Forum 2022, which will take place May 30-June 2 in The Hague, Netherlands and online. The 30 finalists will be invited to showcase their work at the Forum and winning projects will be announced on June 2, 2022. Eligibility and Entry Requirements: Initiatives addressing at least one of the following Challenge themes, as they relate to addressing structural inequities and fundamental barriers on the path to a just COVID-19 recovery, are eligible to apply: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Access to Justice for All• Anti-Corruption and Open Government• Equal Rights and Non-Discrimination The competition is multidisciplinary and open to organizations worldwide, including, but not limited to: non-profits; social entrepreneurs; media; national and multilateral government agencies; local government bodies; businesses/private sector enterprises; bar associations; and law firms from any country or territory in the world.

	Entries will be evaluated according to the following criteria: impact, sustainability, and scaling/Replicability. Please note that the World Justice Challenge is a one-time prize to recognize effective projects and policies already in progress and is not a grantmaking program for new initiatives on the drawing board. Applications seeking funding for future initiatives will not be considered.
